Your Honor

Judge of the Virginia Court

Honorable Sir:

I address you very respectfully about my son's case; BRAYAN ALEXANDER GRAMAJO JOLOMNA. He is being sentenced and in his name I implore a special consideration at the moment you decide the sentence that you will give my son. I realize what a difficult job you have as a judge, but I am asking for your consideration in this matter because I can attest to the fact that my son is a great human being, with respectful moral values, humble, good-hearted, but mostly, an excellent son, father, and loving husband.

Distinguished Judge, it is not my intention to interfere in your job, I just ask you to understand the great pain that this situation my son is in, causes us as parents, made worse by the fact that he is also far away from his three young daughters who are also suffering a lot. Before this happened, Brayan never had problems with the law, and had always acted as a responsible and law abiding citizen. I do not understand the reasons that led him to this situation; but he is remorseful for his mistake, a mistake that has destroyed us as a family. I, as his mother, can assure you my son is learning the hardest lesson of his life.

I am a mother with a broken heart, and together with my husband we are struggling to support and care for our three granddaughters who are 6, 12, and 13 years old. This task is not easy in a country like ours, with high rates of violence and insecurity, where a father figure is indispensable. With all my heart, I beg you sir, Honorable Judge, to give my son a second chance in this life, so that he can be reintegrated into his family who loves him, awaits him and prays to God for him every single day. We share common values with you as we do with all American citizens. We also trust in God and firmly believe in freedom and we hope to have our son return home soon.

Please accept this letter from a mother begging for your consideration, and a father too, who have been hurt and have little strength left to continue this difficult legal process.

Señor,
Juez de la Corte de Virginia

Honorable Sr.

Me dirijo a usted muy respetuosamente en relación al caso en el cual, mi hijo BRAYAN ALEXANDER GRAMAJO JOLOMNA está siendo juzgado, y para quién, le imploro una consideración especial al momento de tomar la decisión de la sentencia que será impuesta a mi hijo. Reconozco la tarea difícil que usted tiene como juez pero esta consideración se la pido en virtud que doy fe que mi hijo es un gran ser humano, de valores respetables, humilde y de buen corazón, pero sobretodo un excelente hijo, padre y esposo amoroso.

Distinguido juez, no es mi intención interferir en su trabajo, solo le pido que entienda cuanto dolor nos causa como padres saber que nuestro hijo está en esta situación, y que además, está lejos de sus tres pequeñas hijas que también sufren mucho. Antes de esto, Brayan no había tenido problemas con la justicia, y siempre ha actuado como un ciudadano responsable y respetuoso. Yo no entiendo los motivos que lo llevaron a esta situación pero él está arrepentido de su error, un error que nos ha destrozado como familia. Yo como madre le aseguro que mi hijo está aprendiendo la lección más dura de su vida.

Soy una madre con el corazón destrozado y junto con mi esposo estamos luchando para mantener el cuidado de nuestras tres nietas de 6, 12 y 13 años. Esta tarea no es fácil en un país como el nuestro, con altos índices de violencia e inseguridad en la que la figura de un padre es indispensable. De corazón le suplico a usted honorable señor juez una segunda oportunidad de vida para que mi hijo pueda reintegrarse a su familia que lo ama, lo espera y pide a Dios por él cada día. Nosotros compartimos valores en común y al igual que todos los ciudadanos norteamericanos, también nosotros Confiamos en Dios y creemos firmemente en la libertad. Y esperamos poder tener pronto de regreso a nuestro hijo en casa.

Por favor, tome esta carta como una súplica de consideración de una madre y un padre lastimados y con pocas fuerzas para continuar en este proceso tan difícil.
